Mr. K. Ramunni Menon.—Quite possible, though there is no through running of trains.

Mr. T. A. Ramachandra Ayyar.—How did he manage to get there?

Mr. K. Ramunni Menon.—He travelled by trolly.

Mr. T. A. Ramachandra Ayyar.—Wherefrom? He went all the distance by trolly?

Mr. K. Ramunni Menon.—He travelled by the Fuel train up to the 11th mile, and then by Trolly and walked up the inclines.

Present constitution of the Society.

184. Mr. K. M. Ibrahim.—Will the Government be pleased to state:—

(a) whether they are aware that the present constitution of society contains the main tendency to make the rich richer and the poor poorer;

(b) what they have been doing to counteract the pestilence in (a);

(c) what they intend to do to ensure equal opportunities for all?

Mr. T. S. Sesha Ayyar.—(a) No.

(b) Does not arise in view of the answer to (a).

(c) Does not arise.

Mr. K. M. Ibrahim.—(a) Are the Government aware of the Prime Minister's finding on this subject in his book of Socialism?

President.—That question does not arise. You could have brought a resolution.

Mr. K. M. Ibrahim.—You cannot answer b and c now?

Mr. T. S. Sesha Ayyar.—No.
